Brown Bag Series will resume in 2012...

With the holidays ahead of us, we will skip December since that tends to be a tough month for people. Beginning in January we will resume the Brown Bag Series so please let us know if there are topics you'd like to see discussed in this forum.

We'd like to THANKYOU for continuing to be involved members of the Intermountain Chapter. In the coming year, we hope to continue and expand the learning and networking opportunities we provide to our members. So stay tuned in 2012 and have a wonderful holiday season!
