

YOU'RE INVITED

ARE WE FACING A PUBLIC PARTICIPATION CRISIS OR OPPORTUNITY?

News, social media, and office chatter tell us that today's national divide is record-breaking.

IAP2, an international association of members who seek to promote and improve the practice of public participation, believes that we all have a stake in our ability to make good decisions together.

Join the IAP2 Puget Sound Chapter for an evening of facilitated small group dialogue that explores public participation's ability to unite us in a time of high conflict and uncertainty:

- Is our country truly divided?
- Can we still make good decisions together?
- What is our role in this context?

JUNE 22 | 5:30 – 8:00 PM

Kirkland Justice Center
11750 NE 118th St
Kirkland, WA 98034

- This event is open to anyone interested in public participation
- Refreshments will be served
- Registration is free but limited. To hold your space, visit bit.ly/2ppZDV5

 This event is open to IAP2 members and friends. Ideas will be shared across IAP2 USA's network of over 2,000 members and friends, through chapter outreach and at the 2017 IAP2 North American conference in Denver September 6-8, 2017. Events like this are being replicated in locations across the country and a special session will be held at the conference to discuss the outputs and determine courses of action for us as an organization and as practitioners to move forward.
